AUDIO OF THIS HEARING AT DKT. NO. 70

For reasons it explained in detail on the record, the court denied the plaintiffs’ motion for a consolidated evidentiary hearing and trial on the merits. Dkt. No. 44.

After explaining that it need to decide the justiciability questions raised by the defendants and amici before it could consider the merits of the plaintiff’s request for injunctive relief, the court asked the plaintiff’s counsel whether the plaintiff needed time to respond to the defendants’ motions to dismiss (Dkt. Nos. 51 and 53). Counsel responded that the plaintiff would file both his reply in support of the motion for injunctive relief and his brief in opposition to the motions to dismiss by 5:00 p.m. CST today. When the court enquired when the plaintiff needed a decision from the court (in order to avoid extinguishment of any appellate rights), counsel responded that he would like the court to rule by tomorrow (December 9, 2020). After hearing from the defendants and amicus the DNC regarding when they could file reply briefs, the court ordered that the deadline for the defendants and amici to file reply briefs in support of the motions to dismiss was December 9, 2020 at 3 p.m. CST. The court indicated that it will try to get a decision out as soon as possible.

The court DENIES the plaintiffs’ motion for consolidated evidentiary hearing and trial on the merits. Dkt. No. 44.

The court ORDERS the plaintiff to file his responses to the motions to dismiss (Dkt. Nos. 51 and 53) and reply brief in support of his motion for injunctive relief (Dkt. No. 10) by December 8, 2020 at 5 p.m. CST.

The court ORDERS that if the defendants and amici wish to file reply briefs in support of the motions to dismiss, they must do so by December 9, 2020 at 3 p.m. CST.

Dated in Milwaukee, Wisconsin this 8th day of December, 2020.
