Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8, Defendant-Intervenor Republican National Committee ("RNC") answers the complaint of Plaintiffs Poder Lantinx, Chicanos Por La Causa, Inc., and Chicanos Por La Causa Action Fund (the "Complaint"). Unless expressly admitted below, every allegation in the Complaint is denied. When the RNC says a factual allegation "speaks for itself," it means it lacks sufficient information to admit or deny the allegation; it does not admit that the referenced material exists, is accurate, is relevant and admissible for the truth of the matter asserted or otherwise, or is placed in the proper context. Subject to the foregoing, the RNC states as follows:

- 1. Paragraph 1 consists of legal conclusions and arguments to which no response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, the RNC denies the allegations in paragraph 1.
- 2. Paragraph 2 consists of legal conclusions and arguments to which no response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, the RNC denies the allegations in paragraph 2.
- 3. The first sentence of paragraph 3 consists of legal conclusions and arguments to which no response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, the RNC denies the allegations in the first sentence of paragraph 3. The provisions of H.B. 2492 and H.B. 2243 speak for themselves.
 - 4. The provisions of H.B. 2492 and H.B. 2243 speak for themselves.
 - 5. The provisions of H.B. 2492 and H.B. 2243 speak for themselves.
- 6. The provisions of H.B. 2617 and the contents of Governor Ducey's explanation for his veto of H.B. 2617 speak for themselves. The RNC denies the remaining allegations in paragraph 6.
- 7. The provisions of H.B. 2592 and the amended A.R.S. § 16-165(I) speak for themselves. The RNC denies the remaining allegations in paragraph 7.

- 8. The RNC admits that Arizona adopted Proposition 200 in 2004. The RNC is without knowledge or information sufficient to admit or deny the allegations in paragraph 8 concerning the voter registration laws of the other 49 states. The RNC denies the remaining allegations in paragraph 8.
 - 9. The RNC denies the allegations in paragraph 9.
- 10. Paragraph 10 consists of legal conclusions and arguments to which no response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, the RNC denies that H.B. 2492 or H.B. 2243 is inconsistent with the National Voter Registration Act or the Supreme Court's opinion in Arizona v. Inter Tribal Council of Arizona, 570 U.S. 1 (2013).
- 11. Paragraph 11 consists of legal conclusions and arguments to which no response is required. To the extent a response is deemed necessary, the RNC denies that H.B. 2492 or H.B. 2243 is inconsistent with any provision of the Fourteenth Amendment, the National Voter Registration Act or the Civil Rights of 1964, and denies that the Plaintiffs are entitled to relief in any form.
 - 12. Paragraph 12 states legal conclusions to which no response is required.
 - 13. Paragraph 13 states legal conclusions to which no response is required.
 - 14. Paragraph 14 states legal conclusions to which no response is required.
 - 15. Paragraph 15 states legal conclusions to which no response is required.
- 16. The RNC admits that Defendants Hobbs and Brnovich were state officials at the time this action commenced and that Defendants Richer, Cazares-Kelly and Colwell are county officials. The RNC is without knowledge or information sufficient to admit or deny the remaining allegations in paragraph 16.
 - 17. Paragraph 17 states legal conclusions to which no response is required.
- 18. The RNC is without knowledge or information sufficient to admit or deny the allegations in paragraph 18.
- 19. The RNC is without knowledge or information sufficient to admit or deny the allegations in paragraph 19.

- 20. The RNC is without knowledge or information sufficient to admit or deny the allegations in paragraph 20.
- 21. The RNC admits that Katie Hobbs was the Secretary of State of Arizona at the time the Complaint was filed. A.R.S. §§ 16-142 and 16-452 and the opinion in Arizona Democratic Party v. Reagan, No. CV-16-03618-PHX-SPL, 2016 WL 6523427 (D. Ariz. Nov. 3, 2016), speak for themselves.
- 22. The RNC admits that Mark Brnovich was the Attorney General of Arizona at the time the Complaint was filed. The provisions of H.B. 2492 speak for themselves.
- 23. The provisions of A.R.S. § 16-168 and other applicable laws defining the responsibilities of the county recorders speak for themselves.
 - 24. The RNC admits the allegations in paragraph 24.
 - 25. The RNC admits the allegations in paragraph 25.
 - 26. The RNC admits the allegations in paragraph 26.
 - 27. A.R.S. § 16-166(F) speaks for itself.
- 28. The provisions of the 2019 Elections Procedures Manual and the Arizona Department of Transportation Guidance cited in footnote 8 speak for themselves. The RNC is without knowledge or information sufficient to admit or deny the allegations in the final sentence of paragraph 28.
- 29. The Supreme Court's opinion in Arizona v. Inter Tribal Council of Arizona, Inc., 570 U.S. 1 (2013), speaks for itself.
- 30. The RNC admits that Arizona has maintained a "dual track voter registration" system and states that the sources cited in paragraph 30 speak for themselves. The RNC denies that any provision of H.B. 2492 is "arbitrar[y]" and denies the remaining allegations in paragraph 30.
- 31. The provisions of the 2019 Elections Procedures Manual and the consent decree in LULAC v. Reagan, 2:17-cv-04102-DGC (D. Ariz. Jun. 18, 2018), speak for themselves. The RNC denies the remaining allegations in paragraph 31.
